

Remember Grace

Deuteronomy 8

Theme: We live transformed lives when we remember God's grace with gratitude.

1) The importance of remembering God's grace.

Two realities from history to remember with gratitude:

- A) Man does not live by _____ alone
- B) God disciplines us as _____
- C) Future blessing in the _____

2) The danger of forgetting God's grace.

Two potential dangers of ingratitude:

- A) The deadly _____ into idolatry
- B) The Slippery Slope of _____

Remember Grace

Deuteronomy 8

Theme: We live transformed lives when we remember God's grace with gratitude.

1) The importance of remembering God's grace.

Two realities from history to remember with gratitude:

- A) Man does not live by _____ alone
- B) God disciplines us as _____
- C) Future blessing in the _____

2) The danger of forgetting God's grace.

Two potential dangers of ingratitude:

- A) The deadly _____ into idolatry
- B) The Slippery Slope of _____

Small Group Questions

1. Consider v.2. Did God not already know what was in their heart? Why test them then?
2. According to the word “Know” in vv.3&5, what was the purpose of the wilderness experience?
3. What is the important admonition Moses gives to the people to remember when they enter the blessing of the promised land in v.10? How does it set the stage for the warning in v.11?
4. How does the downward spiral into idolatry (forgetting God vv.2-11) (ingratitude vv.12-16) (self-sufficiency v.17) and finally (idolatry v.19) bear similarity to Paul’s description of the descent into idolatry in Romans 1:21-23? In light of the admonition in v.10, how can this help us avoid idolatry?
5. Notice there are two warning phrases in vv.11-20. Can you find them? In each section what is Moses warning the people about?
6. At the end of v.16, what does Moses say is the purpose of God’s testing? How does this align with Paul’s theology of suffering in Romans 8:28?
7. What is the warning at the end of this passage? What are the implications for such a warning for us today?

RESPOND

How are we in danger of forgetting God every day?

How can we better remember God and our New Covenant relationship to Christ everyday?

How can a grateful heart toward God protect us from the seduction of the idols of our culture?

Small Group Questions

1. Consider v.2. Did God not already know what was in their heart? Why test them then?
2. According to the word “Know” in vv.3&5, what was the purpose of the wilderness experience?
3. What is the important admonition Moses gives to the people to remember when they enter the blessing of the promised land in v.10? How does it set the stage for the warning in v.11?
4. How does the downward spiral into idolatry (forgetting God vv.2-11) (ingratitude vv.12-16) (self-sufficiency v.17) and finally (idolatry v.19) bear similarity to Paul’s description of the descent into idolatry in Romans 1:21-23? In light of the admonition in v.10, how can this help us avoid idolatry?
5. Notice there are two warning phrases in vv.11-20. Can you find them? In each section what is Moses warning the people about?
6. At the end of v.16, what does Moses say is the purpose of God’s testing? How does this align with Paul’s theology of suffering in Romans 8:28?
7. What is the warning at the end of this passage? What are the implications for such a warning for us today?

RESPOND

How are we in danger of forgetting God every day?

How can we better remember God and our New Covenant relationship to Christ everyday?

How can a grateful heart toward God protect us from the seduction of the idols of our culture?