

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Luke 10: 25-37

Theme: God gives us opportunities to show spontaneous and sacrificial love toward others.

1) THE LAWYER'S QUESTION ABOUT ETERNAL LIFE (v.25)

- A) An inheritance is something we freely _____.
- B) There is nothing we can ever do in order to inherit _____.

2) JESUS' QUESTION ABOUT THE LAW (v.26-28)

- A) Jesus took him right back to the Bible and had him quote the verses from Deut 6:6 that were hanging on his own _____ inside the phylactery.
- B) Once the lawyer quoted the verses Jesus told him to _____.

3) THE LAWYER'S QUESTION ABOUT HIS NEIGHBOR (v.29)

- A) His motivation was to justify himself and to _____ the scope of his neighbors.
- B) At that moment he could have admitted his _____.

4) JESUS' QUESTION ABOUT WHO WAS NEIGHBORLY (v.30-37)

- A) The priest and Levite both went in the _____ direction.
- B) The Samaritan, who in this story is the bad guy, turned out to be the _____.
- C) The real question is not "Who is my neighbor, but what _____ of neighbor am I?"

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Luke 10: 25-37

Theme: God gives us opportunities to show spontaneous and sacrificial love toward others.

1) THE LAWYER'S QUESTION ABOUT ETERNAL LIFE (v.25)

- A) An inheritance is something we freely _____.
- B) There is nothing we can ever do in order to inherit _____.

2) JESUS' QUESTION ABOUT THE LAW (v.26-28)

- A) Jesus took him right back to the Bible and had him quote the verses from Deut 6:6 that were hanging on his own _____ inside the phylactery.
- B) Once the lawyer quoted the verses Jesus told him to _____.

3) THE LAWYER'S QUESTION ABOUT HIS NEIGHBOR (v.29)

- A) His motivation was to justify himself and to _____ the scope of his neighbors.
- B) At that moment he could have admitted his _____.

4) JESUS' QUESTION ABOUT WHO WAS NEIGHBORLY (v.30-37)

- A) The priest and Levite both went in the _____ direction.
- B) The Samaritan, who in this story is the bad guy, turned out to be the _____.
- C) The real question is not "Who is my neighbor, but what _____ of neighbor am I?"

Small Group Questions

REFLECT

1. What prompted the lawyer to ask Jesus the question about eternal life in the first place? Read vs. 17-24
2. What was the problem with the lawyer's question about eternal life? v.25 Can we ever do anything in order to merit eternal life?
3. Why did Jesus point the lawyer to the Law? What did He intend to show him?
4. What verses in the O.T. did the lawyer quote and why? v. 27 These verses were hanging from which part of his body inside the phylactery?
5. What was behind the lawyer's response "And who is my neighbour?" v.29 What was he thinking? Who was he thinking about? What was he trying to do?
6. What did priests and Levites do during the time of Jesus? What were their functions and what was their response? v.31-32
7. Why were Samaritans so hated by the Jews? See Ezra 2-4, John 4:9, John 8:48
8. Can you name the six things the Samaritan did to this man? v.33-35
9. What did Jesus change the original question "Who is my neighbour?" to? v.29 and v.36. Why did Jesus use this parable in the first place? And how does this affect us?
10. Do you think God controls all events in life? Is there such a thing as "chance"? Can you think of any divine appointments/encounters you experience on a daily basis? Do you think the people you meet on a daily basis may be in need of help?

RESPOND

Talk about the opportunities God affords you to extend love and compassion toward others on a daily basis. Are these people always going to be the friendliest to you? How can we respond?

Small Group Questions

REFLECT

1. What prompted the lawyer to ask Jesus the question about eternal life in the first place? Read vs. 17-24
2. What was the problem with the lawyer's question about eternal life? v.25 Can we ever do anything in order to merit eternal life?
3. Why did Jesus point the lawyer to the Law? What did He intend to show him?
4. What verses in the O.T. did the lawyer quote and why? v. 27 These verses were hanging from which part of his body inside the phylactery?
5. What was behind the lawyer's response "And who is my neighbour?" v.29 What was he thinking? Who was he thinking about? What was he trying to do?
6. What did priests and Levites do during the time of Jesus? What were their functions and what was their response? v.31-32
7. Why were Samaritans so hated by the Jews? See Ezra 2-4, John 4:9, John 8:48
8. Can you name the six things the Samaritan did to this man? v.33-35
9. What did Jesus change the original question "Who is my neighbour?" to? v.29 and v.36. Why did Jesus use this parable in the first place? And how does this affect us?
10. Do you think God controls all events in life? Is there such a thing as "chance"? Can you think of any divine appointments/encounters you experience on a daily basis? Do you think the people you meet on a daily basis may be in need of help?

RESPOND

Talk about the opportunities God affords you to extend love and compassion toward others on a daily basis. Are these people always going to be the friendliest to you? How can we respond?