

Caesar and God

Luke 20:19-26

Theme: The state has a right to our tax money but
God has the right to claim our lives.

1) The Attempted Setup (vv.19-22)

- A) The political _____
- B) The two _____ options

2) What Belongs to Caesar (vv.23-24)

- A) Caesar's _____
- B) The Christian and the _____

3) What belongs to God (vv.25-26)

- A) God's _____
- B) _____ and the State

Caesar and God

Luke 20:19-26

Theme: The state has a right to our tax money but
God has the right to claim our lives.

1) The Attempted Setup (vv.19-22)

- A) The political _____
- B) The two _____ options

2) What Belongs to Caesar (vv.23-24)

- A) Caesar's _____
- B) The Christian and the _____

3) What belongs to God (vv.25-26)

- A) God's _____
- B) _____ and the State

Small Group Questions

1. Read Mark's version of this story in Mark 12:13-17. Who does Mark say were the two principal parties involved in confronting Jesus about paying taxes to Caesar and why was this significant?
2. What was the strategy of the scribes and chief priests that involved trick questions? What did they seek to accomplish?
3. In what way did the "spies" act as hypocrites, that is, pretending they were something that they were not?
4. Why did Jesus ask his opponents for the coin? Why would they have in their possession a coin that carried blasphemous inscriptions?
5. How does Jesus' answer affect our attitude in paying taxes? What are some legitimate obligations we have to government?
6. Are we ever to resist civil government? Compare Romans 13:1-7 and 1Peter 2:13-17 with Acts 4:13-22 and Acts 16:25-40
7. What does Jesus mean when he says to render to God what is God's? How do we do that? How do we live that out?

Small Group Questions

1. Read Mark's version of this story in Mark 12:13-17. Who does Mark say were the two principal parties involved in confronting Jesus about paying taxes to Caesar and why was this significant?
2. What was the strategy of the scribes and chief priests that involved trick questions? What did they seek to accomplish?
3. In what way did the "spies" act as hypocrites, that is, pretending they were something that they were not?
4. Why did Jesus ask his opponents for the coin? Why would they have in their possession a coin that carried blasphemous inscriptions?
5. How does Jesus' answer affect our attitude in paying taxes? What are some legitimate obligations we have to government?
6. Are we ever to resist civil government? Compare Romans 13:1-7 and 1Peter 2:13-17 with Acts 4:13-22 and Acts 16:25-40
7. What does Jesus mean when he says to render to God what is God's? How do we do that? How do we live that out?