

The Parable of the Just Judge

Luke 18:1-8

1) The Challenges to persistent Prayer (v.1)

- A) Sometimes we assume that we are _____ to handle things in our own strength.
- B) Sometimes we don't pray because we can't _____. We are just lazy or indifferent.
- C) Probably the main reason we often give up praying is because God seems not to _____.

2) The Context of Persistent Prayer (vv.2-5)

3) The Motivation for Persistent Prayer:

A Greater Judge (vv.6-7)

- A) God is a _____ Judge
- B) God is a _____ Judge
- C) God is a _____ Judge

4) Believing and persevering in Prayer (v.8)

- A) God will respond _____ to requests.
- B) Faith is needed in the face of _____.

The Parable of the Just Judge

Luke 18:1-8

1) The Challenges to persistent Prayer (v.1)

- A) Sometimes we assume that we are _____ to handle things in our own strength.
- B) Sometimes we don't pray because we can't _____. We are just lazy or indifferent.
- C) Probably the main reason we often give up praying is because God seems not to _____.

2) The Context of Persistent Prayer (vv.2-5)

3) The Motivation for Persistent Prayer:

A Greater Judge (vv.6-7)

- A) God is a _____ Judge
- B) God is a _____ Judge
- C) God is a _____ Judge

4) Believing and persevering in Prayer (v.8)

- A) God will respond _____ to requests.
- B) Faith is needed in the face of _____.

Small Group Questions

REFLECT

1. When have you prayed most persistently for or about something? How was your prayer answered? What did you learn through that process?
2. What did Jesus say is the point of this parable (v.1)?
3. Why do you think God wants us to pray with persistence when He already knows our concerns?
4. In what ways does persistence in prayer show God our faith and expectation that He will answer?
5. How is God like and unlike the judge in this parable (vv.7-8)?
6. The widow's petition is an example of the powerless coming before the powerful. Why is it essential that we see ourselves as powerless and God as powerful? How might this realization change the way you approach God in prayer?
7. What does the widow teach us about what God values and expects from His followers? How does persistent prayer increase our faith?
8. What role should the promises of God's Word play in our praying? How should the reality of Christ's return to right all wrongs affect our praying?

RESPOND

Would you characterize your current prayer life as persistent? Why or why not? What have you done/could you do to develop a persistent prayer life?

What difficult situations or circumstances in your life do you need to trust God's timing in? How might persistent prayer help you persevere in those situations?

Small Group Questions

REFLECT

1. When have you prayed most persistently for or about something? How was your prayer answered? What did you learn through that process?
2. What did Jesus say is the point of this parable (v.1)?
3. Why do you think God wants us to pray with persistence when He already knows our concerns?
4. In what ways does persistence in prayer show God our faith and expectation that He will answer?
5. How is God like and unlike the judge in this parable (vv.7-8)?
6. The widow's petition is an example of the powerless coming before the powerful. Why is it essential that we see ourselves as powerless and God as powerful? How might this realization change the way you approach God in prayer?
7. What does the widow teach us about what God values and expects from His followers? How does persistent prayer increase our faith?
8. What role should the promises of God's Word play in our praying? How should the reality of Christ's return to right all wrongs affect our praying?

RESPOND

Would you characterize your current prayer life as persistent? Why or why not? What have you done/could you do to develop a persistent prayer life?

What difficult situations or circumstances in your life do you need to trust God's timing in? How might persistent prayer help you persevere in those situations?