RESPOND

How is the submission of the owner of the colt an example of how we ought to submit to Christ’s kingly authority in our lives?

The same crowd that was praising Jesus turned to cursing Him a week later when they realized Jesus wasn’t bringing salvation on their terms. Are we only willing to follow Jesus when He does what we want, or are we willing to follow Him into trouble, controversy, trial and death? What does it mean for us today to follow Him in times of difficulty?
