Missions Update:

Please pray for the Karwurs and their ministry as they adjust through all the COVID restrictions/regulations. They are still offering classes through on-line learning at the seminary in Indonesia. Pray for the students as they adjust to this new style of learning.

Pray that the Karwurs are able to return to Indonesia in early January. Their plans to return in October have been canceled in light of the COVID travel restrictions.

Praise God that the seminary is doing very well financially with the high enrollment and generous contributions!

They are currently going through the accreditation process for the Seminary's Bachelor and Master of Theology programs. Pray that they will find favour with the authorities who make these decisions.

Pray that the upcoming Graduation ceremony will be able to happen on Nov. 6th. There are 18 students who are finishing their final research paper and ready to graduate.

We are in need of some more help on Sunday mornings. If you would like to be on our tech team please contact Laura in the office (contact info on back page). Training is available for each position.

Brents Bits and Pieces:

"Jesus stipulated that those who wish to follow him must be prepared to shift the center of gravity in their lives from a concern for self to reckless abandon to the will of God. The central thought in self-denial is a disowning of any claim that may be urged by the self, a sustained willingness to say, 'No' to oneself in order to be able to say 'Yes' to God. This involves a radical denunciation of all self-idolatry and of every attempt to establish one's own life in accordance with the dictates of the self. This demand is reinforced and intensified by the horrifying image of a death march."

~ William Lane, "The Gospel of Mark"

"Every hour is the last hour. Every successive hour and day, self is to be found by being lost. Let the disciple refuse himself: let him think constantly as one who feels the weight of the hateful beam across his back and knows himself condemned to die. This is the existential calling while the reign of God is being brought in."

~ D.R. Fletcher, "Condemned to Die"

HOME BIBLE STUDY NOTES

1. What was the accepted understanding of the person and role of the Messiah when Jesus spoke these words to the disciples? (See Dan 7:13-14) What did they overlook? (Isaiah 53:1-12) (v.31)
2. Why did Peter rebuke Jesus? (v.32) What did Jesus identify as the source of his thinking and actions? (v.33)
3. Was this “death march” meant for Jesus only? (v.34) And is this meant only for “radical believers”? Discuss ways this will alter your own commitment to Christ.
4. What does it mean to “deny yourself and to take up your cross” in order to follow Christ? (v.34) What was Jesus alluding to when he said “take up your cross”? (Read quotes from William Lane and D.R. Fletcher)
5. Do you think people have difficulty understanding and/or appropriating these passages? Why?
6. Jesus gave us several reasons why we should surrender to Him. (vv.35-38) Discuss the first paradox found in verse 35. What value does God place on one soul? (vv.36-37) (Psalm 49:7-8, 15)
7. What are the consequences of being ashamed of Christ and His words? What should be our response? (v.38)

RESPONSIVE READING PSALM 76 (ESV)

<sup>3</sup>There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war.

<sup>5</sup>The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; all the men of war were unable to use their hands.

<sup>6</sup>At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

<sup>7</sup>But you, you are to be feared! Who can stand before you when once your anger is roused?

<sup>8</sup>From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still,

<sup>9</sup>when God arose to establish judgment, to save all the humble of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Surely the wrath of man shall praise you; the remnant of wrath you will put on like a belt.

<sup>11</sup>Make your vows to the Lord your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared,

<sup>12</sup>who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.
