Missions Update:

Please pray for the Karwurs and their ministry as they adjust through all the COVID restrictions/regulations. They are still offering classes through on-line learning at the seminary in Indonesia. Pray for the students as they adjust to this new style of learning.

Pray that the Karwurs are able to return to Indonesia in early January. Their plans to return in October have been canceled in light of the COVID travel restrictions.

Praise God that the seminary is doing very well financially with the high enrollment and generous contributions!

They are currently going through the accreditation process for the Seminary's Bachelor and Master of Theology programs. Pray that they will find favour with the authorities who make these decisions.

Pray that the upcoming Graduation ceremony will be able to happen on Nov. 6th. There are 18 students who are finishing their final research paper and ready to graduate.

We are in need of some more help on Sunday mornings. If you would like to be on our tech team please contact Laura in the office (contact info on back page). Training is available for each position.

Brents Bits and Pieces:

Two elders' wives sat mending their husbands' pants. One of them said to the other, "Poor John, he is so discouraged by his church work. Just the other day, he said that he was considering resigning. It seems like nothing ever goes right for him." The other wife replied, "That's too bad. My husband was saying exactly the opposite. He's been feeling so inspired lately. It seems like he's closer to the Lord than ever."

A heavy silence filled the room as the women continued mending the pants – one the seat and the other the knees.

HOME BIBLE STUDY NOTES

1. Why did Jesus travel to the region of Tyre and Sidon? How does this story of the Syrophenician woman relate to His earlier encounter with the Pharisees? (vv.1-23)
2. Both Jairus (Mark 5: 21-23) and this woman came to Jesus with similar needs and fell at his feet. Give reasons why she would be at a disadvantage next to him.
3. Can you think of reasons why the disciples would reject her?
4. Jesus did not answer her immediately. (Matt 15:23) Was He rejecting or testing her?
5. When Jesus spoke about the “children being fed first” (v.27) and the “children’s bread”, who was He referring to? (Ex 4:22; Matt 15:24)
6. What kind of a dog was Jesus referring to? What are the differences between the two?
7. What did Jesus intend for her to discover in his parable? (Ac 10:15; Isa 42:1; Isa 49:6; 61:11; Rom 1:16)
8. Discuss her response in v.29, and the ways we can emulate this woman’s faith.

RESPONSIVE READING PSALM 74 (ESV)

¹O God, why do you cast us off forever? Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?

²Remember your congregation, which you have purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage! Remember Mount Zion, where you have dwelt.

³Direct your steps to the perpetual ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary!

⁴Your foes have roared in the midst of your meeting place; they set up their own signs for signs.

⁵They were like those who swing axes in a forest of trees.

⁶And all its carved wood they broke down with hatchets and hammers.

⁷They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned the dwelling place of your name, bringing it down to the ground.

⁸They said to themselves, "We will utterly subdue them"; they burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

⁹We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet, and there is none among us who knows how long.

¹⁰How long, O God, is the foe to scoff? Is the enemy to revile your name forever?

¹¹Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take it from the fold of your garment and destroy them!

¹²Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³You divided the sea by your might; you broke the heads of the sea monsters on the waters.

¹⁴You crushed the heads of Leviathan; you gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

¹⁵You split open springs and brooks; you dried up ever-flowing streams.

¹⁶Yours is the day, yours also the night; you have established the heavenly lights and the sun.

¹⁷You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth; you have made summer and winter.

¹⁸Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy scoffs, and a foolish people reviles your name.

¹⁹Do not deliver the soul of your dove to the wild beasts; do not forget the life of your poor forever.

²⁰Have regard for the covenant, for the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.

²¹Let not the downtrodden turn back in shame; let the poor and needy praise your name.

²²Arise, O God, defend your cause; remember how the foolish scoff at you all the day!

²³Do not forget the clamor of your foes, the uproar of those who rise against you, which goes up continually!
