

<sup>20</sup>You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again; from the depths of the earth you will bring me up again.

<sup>21</sup>You will increase my greatness and comfort me again.

<sup>22</sup>I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>My lips will shout for joy, when I sing praises to you; my soul also, which you have redeemed.

<sup>24</sup>And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long, for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to do me hurt.

RESPONSIVE READING PSALM 71 (ESV)

<sup>1</sup>In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame!

<sup>2</sup>In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me, and save me!

<sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may continually come; you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.

<sup>4</sup>Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.

<sup>5</sup>For you, O Lord, are my hope, my trust, O Lord, from my youth.

<sup>6</sup>Upon you I have leaned from before my birth; you are he who took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually of you.

<sup>7</sup>I have been as a portent to many, but you are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup>My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day.

<sup>9</sup>Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent.

<sup>10</sup>For my enemies speak concerning me; those who watch for my life consult together

<sup>11</sup>and say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver him."

<sup>12</sup>O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me!

<sup>13</sup>May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.

<sup>14</sup>But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more and more.

<sup>15</sup>My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.

<sup>16</sup>With the mighty deeds of the Lord God I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.

<sup>17</sup>O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.

<sup>18</sup>So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.

<sup>19</sup>Your righteousness, O God, reaches the high heavens. You who have done great things, O God, who is like you?

HOME BIBLE STUDY NOTES

1. What are the commonalities between the two stories of the woman and of Jairus and his daughter?
2. Describe how you feel when you encounter interruptions or delays. How do you think Jairus felt when Jesus suddenly stopped to talk to this unknown woman?
3. What were the consequences of a woman being declared “unclean” as a result of her hemorrhaging? (See Leviticus 15:19-28) What effects did this have on the woman?
4. Why did Jesus stop and talk to the woman before she was able to leave? What three things did she receive?
5. Describe how Jairus would have felt the moment he heard the news that his daughter had died. What is our tendency to do? How did he escape his unbelief? Do you think he believed before or only after his daughter’s healing?
6. Give another reason why Jesus stopped to heal the woman on the way to Jairus’ house?
7. What must we do during these times of crisis, interruptions and even death? (Mar 9:23-24; Rom. 4:18)
8. What are some additional things that we have learned from this text?

Missions Update:

Please pray for the Karwurs and their ministry as they adjust through all the COVID restrictions/regulations. They are still offering classes through on-line learning at the seminary in Indonesia. Pray for the students as they adjust to this new style of learning.

Pray that the Karwurs are able to return to Indonesia in early January. Their plans to return in October have been canceled in light of the COVID travel restrictions.

Praise God that the seminary is doing very well financially with the high enrollment and generous contributions!

They are currently going through the accreditation process for the Seminary's Bachelor and Master of Theology programs. Pray that they will find favour with the authorities who make these decisions.

Pray that the upcoming Graduation ceremony will be able to happen on Nov. 6th. There are 18 students who are finishing their final research paper and ready to graduate.

We are in need of some more help on Sunday mornings, if you would like to be on our tech team please contact Laura in the office (contact info below). Training is available for each position.

Brents Bits and Pieces:

“Arguably, no time in church history has more closely approximated the 1st century beginning of the church than now. Our ancient brethren faced a Pagan pre-Christian culture. Similarly, the contemporary church encounters a pagan, post-Christian, and post-modern world. The essential biblical model of ministry of the 1st century has never been more appropriate than it is today.”

POWER OVER ALL DEATH

Mark 5:21-43

Theme: Each of us will be forced to make this decision in life: Will we choose not to fear our circumstances but to believe in God? (See verse 36)

1. JAIRUS' DESPERATE PLEA (VV.22-23)

He was experiencing severe anguish as his daughter was dying.

2. UNEXPECTED INTERRUPTIONS! (VV.24-34)

Jesus interrupts his trip to Jairus' home for a woman who needs healing.

Interruptions, disruptions, pauses can be sources of irritation and agitation.

She was hemorrhaging and was declared “unclean”.

Why did she go to Jesus? (see 3:10 and v.27a)

What she was after and what she received.

3. RETURN TO JAIRUS (VV.35-43)

Suddenly bad news! “She’s dead.”

James Edwards - “The story swings like a pendulum of a clock between the extremes of human despair and divine possibility.”

4. WE MUST LISTEN TO WHAT JESUS IS SAYING TO US (VV.36)

In the face of death, who will we continue to believe in? Our feelings, the mourners, or God? (Mark 9:23-24; Rom. 4:18a) God has power over all death and unbelief.

These healings tell us that one day there will be no more death. (Rev. 21:3)
